MASONIC PUBLIC AWARENESS

AD SLICKS

These camera-ready ad slicks for use in print media have been prepared by the Masonic Information Center for Lodges in North America. They are intended to give the public a view of several aspects of the Masonic Fraternity. There is space for the Lodge name or other contact information to be included.

Each ad is a stand alone unit, either as a two-or a three-column insertion. You can design your program to use one or more ads in any order, choosing only the ads you wish.

A CD is also provided with each ad available in the following formats: Illustrator.eps and adobe pdf. Check with the media to determine which format they will accept.

A catalog of other materials and publications available through the Masonic Information Center may be ordered free of charge by writing to:
